

APPLYING FOR SCHOLARSHIPS IN FOUR EASY STEPS

Introduction

Each year, millions of dollars in scholarships are awarded to students by various organisations such as tertiary institutions, Government, societies and businesses.

There are many types of scholarships, which have different eligibility criteria, selection criteria, and methods of applying.

There isn't a central resource you can use to find every single scholarship you may be eligible for. You will need to take time to search through: Government websites, tertiary institute websites and brochures, Internet search engines, Good Universities Guide scholarship search, and Tertiary Admission Centre websites. This guide will go through the 4 main resources available for these searches.

This may take you a considerable amount of time, but it will be worth it if you can secure a scholarship, especially if you have to move away from home to study. Your parents/guardians may be able to assist you with sourcing scholarships, as well as your campus' Career Development Practitioner/s.

STEP 1 - CENTRELINK

If you are eligible for a Centrelink benefit such as Youth Allowance, you may be eligible to receive the Student Start-up Loan, <http://bit.ly/28WsHeM>

If you have to move more than 90kms away to study your course either from or to a regional area and you receive the dependant rate of Youth Allowance, you may be eligible for the Relocation Scholarship, <http://bit.ly/1MaHRom>

Ring the Centrelink 'Students and Trainees' line on 132 490 and ask them for an appointment with your parents/guardians to find out if you are eligible for either.

For interstate universities, search for them via Google eg. "Western Sydney University Scholarships".

You will need to search through the scholarships that are relevant to you. These could include - undergraduate, faculty (e.g., health), campus, memorial, bequeathed, accommodation etc. You will need to read over each one, and check the eligibility criteria and how to apply. There will be different closing dates and methods on how to apply.

Go to the scholarships homepage of the institutions you have applied to and explore your options. If you find a scholarship, find out how to apply for it.

If it says you need to apply through VTAC or UAC, you have already done this through step 2.

Direct Entry: You will need to apply for the scholarship directly to the university. You may have to apply via an application form or online portal.

STEP 4: OTHER SCHOLARSHIPS
