

ANGOVE

SINCE 1886

FAMILY WINEMAKERS

Reviews & Awards

LONG ROW

2016 Shiraz

SOUTH AUSTRALIA

ADELAIDE ADVERTISER - TONY LOVE - 03.01.18 - 3.5 STARS

"If the wallet's looking a bit thin after a mad festive spending spree, this will help. It's pretty darned drinkable at the blue-note price point, with decent medium-bodied, juicy, plum-like shiraz characters, enough bouquet and palate power, and even some finer-grained tannin mouthfeel to be convincing in a casual, non-demanding scenario like barbecues, picnics and visitor drop ins."

SUNDAY TIMES - RAY JORDAN - 03.12.17 - 87 POINTS

"Rich, plummy fruit with a little spice and vanillin oak in support. It's smooth and seamless with a clean, long finish."

QWINE - STEVE LESZCZYNSKI - 20.10.17 - 88 POINTS

"If you only had a tenner to part with for a bottle of red, I'd happily recommend this shiraz. Tip top for the money. Dark plums, tempered peppery spice, slight bitter chocolate with cocoa tannins. Drying but moreish. Doing the job well."

