2017 Grenache Shiraz Rosé SOUTH AUSTRALIA

THE SUNDAY TELEGRAPH - JOHN FORDHAM - 11.03.18

"Multi-award winning grenache-shiraz McLaren Vale blend that will delight those on the lookout for a light, dry and fulsome expression of rosé that can be enjoyed either as an aperitif or as a food partner. Winemaker Tony Ingle's magical varietal marriage delivers the near-perfect result."

THE REAL REVIEW - HUON HOOKE - 26.02.18 - 91 POINTS

"Light, bright, youthful looking pink colour, a beautiful shade of pink. The palate is sweetish and fruity, very grapy and fresh and primary. Lovely wine, clean and fruit and not over-sweet, but commercially astute."

THE COURIER NEWSPAPER - ROSS NOBLE - 21.02.18

"With 15 trophies since its launch 15 years ago, the Angove Nine Vines Grenache Shiraz Rosé is set to again shine on the show circuit with the release of the 2017 vintage. Juicy grenache dominates – 68% – supplemented with 32% shiraz. Chief winemaker Tony Ingle said the Nine Vines has evolved into a wine which "expresses the strawberry of the grenache more and shows a touch dryer palate".
