2017 Fiano

McLAREN VALE

JAMES HALLIDAY WINE COMPANION - 01.03.18 - 91 POINTS

"I seldom use the word 'tasty' to describe a wine, but it's what fiano is more often than not. This has a swashbuckle swagger to it as the flavours fill the mouth: lemon rind, honey, chalky."

GOURMET ON THE ROAD - WINSOR DOBBIN - 20.12.17

"Looking for a chilled glass or two to pair with freshly shucked oysters? This wine made from a fast-emerging Italian grape steps up with its lively fresh palate."

THE WINE FRONT - CAMPBELL MATTINSON - 01.12.17 - 89 POINTS

"Enough flavour, enough grip, enough length. This is a white wine offering a mouthful of fruit flavour - tempered by a salty savouriness - and plenty of texture, making it a good 'go to' drinking option."
