MCLAREN VALE

JAMES SUCKLING - WWW.JAMESSUCKLING.COM - JUNE 2020 - 92 POINTS

“A bold expression of ripe red and dark plums with an earthy and spicy edge that has plenty of appeal. The palate has a plush, smooth and sleek feel with a wealth of sweet, spiced blackberry and plum flavor. Drink or hold.”

JAMES HALLIDAY WINE COMPANION 2020 - AUGUST 2019 - 94 POINTS

“A mouthfilling red with tar, coffee, five-spice and blackberried fruit flavours washing persuasively through the mouth. It has depth and presence but it's not overburdened; it remains juicy and well balanced throughout. Dark chocolate notes add to a convincing display.”

Q-WINE - STEVE LESZCZYNSKI - 17 MAY 2019 - 95 POINTS

“Generous dark berries and plums are wrapped in a parcel of cedar, dark chocolate and black earth. Super smooth and luscious fruit oozes charisma reaching every crevice of the mouth with ease. Dashes of raspberry sneak up at the death before a tingle of exotic spice lingers on a sustained and moreish finish. A classy wine that will only improve with bottle age”.

TONI PATTERSON - THE REAL REVIEW - 23 APRIL 2019 - 94 POINTS

“An excellent McLaren ‘dry-red’ with lovely dark berry fruit and accents of musk and Turkish Delight. The palate is beautifully plush with lively acidity and gentle drying tannins. Outstanding concentration”.

WINE ENTHUSIAST MAGAZINE - AUGUST 2019 PUBLICATION (USA) - 91 POINTS
