Reviews & Awards

2013 Shiraz

MCLAREN VALE

WINE ENTHUSIAST - JOE CZERWINSKI - OCTOBER 2016 - 94 POINTS

"Selected from four sites planted 40-60 years ago, this is a full-bodied, muscular, rich Shiraz. Roast beef notes provide savory counterpoints to ripe plum, chocolate and mint. Long, firm and focused on the finish, where it picks up some mocha nuances. Drink now - 2030."

JAMES HALLIDAY 2017 WINE COMPANION - AUGUST 2016 - 97 POINTS

"From four sites with vines 40-60yo, half-tonne open fermenters, basket-pressed, matured for 18 months in French puncheons, each assessed for inclusion. Pushes the envelope with its far-ranging suite of flavour and texture, but does so with sure-footed confidence. Blackberry, satsuma plum, cedary oak and ripe tannins all contribute to an outstanding McLaren Vale shiraz."

GOLD BOOK - ROB GEDDES - JUNE 2016 - 94 POINTS

"Freshness of fruit in the polished nutty tight grained oak aromas. Youthful, complex, balanced ripe fruit and oak in long and well-constructed fine grained tannins with a blackberry and black olive intrigue."

JAMESSUCKLING.COM - NICK STOCK - MARCH 2016 - 93 POINTS

"A selection of parcels from four different sites around the Vale, this has a wealth of dark and hearty plum and berry fruits, earthy too. The oak sits in stride adding spicy background complexity. The palate has a terrific mix of fine tannins and fleshy supple fruit, boysenberry, raspberry and plum flavors run even - good poise. Drink now or cellar for 10+ years."

THE AUSTRALIAN WINE ANNUAL 2016 - JEREMY OLIVER - 3 STARS

"Polished and stylish, this savoury, earthy and very regional shiraz has a deep, if rather closed bouquet of dark plums, cassis and blackberries scented with nuances of musky spices, cedary oak and black pepper. Full to medium-bodied, it drips with intense flavours of blackberries and dark plums, finishing long and complete with lingering mineral and savoury aspects plus a hint of roasting meat tray."

WINE SPECTATOR INSIDER - M.W - JANUARY 2016 - 91 POINTS

"Graceful, with wilted rose petal and white pepper accents to the fresh and vibrant cherry and cranberry flavours. Finishes smooth and enduring. Drink now through 2026."
