GOURMET TRAVELLER WINE - MIKE BENNIE - FEBRUARY / MARCH 2021

"Naturalis is a new range from the Angove family of wines. This cabernet is lush and plush, dark fruited, plummy and rich. While soft and generous, there's a decent hug from mocha powder-like tannins and some detail from a lick of mintiness, with decent seasoning of twiggy, smoky oak in tow. It's a fuller flavoured, deep and brooding red that feels more winter warmer than summer sipper, though a light chill won't undo the good work in the wine."

SMART NUTRITIONAL - MAX CRUS - NOVEMBER 2020 - 92 POINTS

"Certified Organic in case you couldn't guess from the name and the bee on the label, good, clean red for good, clean-living types"

QWINE - STEVE LESZCZYNSKI - NOVEMBER 2020 - 88 POINTS

"Organic Cabernet Sauvignon from Angove Family Wines new Naturalis label sold exclusively through independent retailers. This surprised me a little to be honest. I had in my mind this would be a little more fleet footed than what was delivered. Wearing weighty shoes, it's quite tannic. Mouth sapping and puckering so. A medley of black fruits, dark chocolate and a subtle hint of licorice. Give it a breath of air and it opens itself up a little more for some conversation."
