2016 Sauvignon Blanc

SOUTH AUSTRALIA

MONEY MAGAZINE - PETER FORRESTAL - JANUARY 2017

“This is sourced from Angove’s outstanding Nanya Vineyard. In what was an early but very good harvest for the region, the 2016 organic sauvignon was clean, fresh and varietal – gentle, ripe tropical flavours with light herbal notes – before a crisp, lively finish. Pleasant, uncomplicated summer drinking.”

MIKE BENNIE - 20.11.16

“This bargain is a beauty. The South Australian wine shines from the glass with that vibrant, grassy freshness you’d expect from sauvignon blanc, and just enough tropical fruitiness to keep things humming. Fresh, crunchy-textured, and organic fruit. Boom!”

ADELAIDE ADVERTISER - JENNY SEMMLER - 15.10.16

“($15) is delightfully restrained and elegant. It’s as pale as white asparagus, with a slightly tropical and sweet grassy nose. The flavours are restrained and austere, with fresh kiwifruit and flinty notes, and a mouthwateringly crisp and fine finish.”

THE MERCURY (HOBART) - GRAEME PHILLIP - 13.09.16

“The grapes are from a 40-year-old, 185ha organic section of Angove’s 300ha Nanya Vineyard in Renmark. Pale bronze colour with intense tropical fruits and herbal aromas, the palate not refreshingly bright or with the zip and zing, usual in this variety.”

FROST ON THE VINE - MIKE FROST - 22.07.16 90 POINTS

QWINE - STEVE LESZCZYNSKI - 12.07.16 87 POINTS

“Lots of fresh tropical fruit spilling from the glass. Guava, honeydew melon and passion fruit all sharing the lead role. Clean and crisp, cut herbs and pithy lemon present themselves with a little grip pushing through. A pleasant summer time drop.”
