ORGANIC

2016 Shiraz Cabernet

SOUTH AUSTRALIA

AUSTRALIAN GOURMET TRAVELLER - MIKE BENNIE - 01.11.17

“Angove reliably shows us that well-farmed organic grapes can produce wines at approachable pricepoints. This is an ample red of corduroy-textured, plush, dark fruit characters. It’s generous in its blackcurrant, plum and dusty oak flavours with a bouquet that reflects a similar personality. There’s a good ripple of espresso-like, palate-sticking tannins to close. Those seeking a red of amplitude for quaffing will find this most appealing.”

THE WINE FRONT - MIKE BENNIE - 28.06.17 - 87 POINTS

“This isn’t the smoothest red but it has a bit of clout. Not in colour, but in flavour. It tastes of blackberry, asphalt, dust and toasty oak, a (modest but important) run of sweeter dark chocolate coming through as it breathes. It wouldn’t stand up in all company but with the asking price factored in, this is pretty handy quality; particularly if served in tandem with a good steak.”
