A weekly conversation about politics and current events, international affairs, history, art, books, and the natural world, to illuminate the issues faced by society and explore them in new ways.
Amy Mullins

12 NOON: BANANA LOUNGE BROADCASTING
Dave Graney presents BLB with a revolving cast of co-hosts. BLB recognises that everybody is right about music but BLB is just MORE RIGHT. RIGHTER. RIGHT OFF. BLB is proudly on the grid but also very much capable of being OFF THE GRID. Playing lots of contemporary Australian music by young and old artists, whatever teases the BLB vibe. Aiming to have interviews and guests regularly from the arts, literary, film, comedy and music world.
Dave Graney and guests

2PM: THE GOOD, THE DUB & THE GLOBAL
Explores the differences between traditional and contemporary global rhythms, the goodness of dub and other tasty treats that fall into the description of Good! Expect music from all corners of the planet near and far and a healthy bassline to kick the day along in a musical style.
Systa BB

4PM: DOUBLE BOUNCE
Moments & movements that are bouncing into earshot each week. Drop in for a catch up on what's making bandrooms fill, parties pop, thinkpieces churn out, and fans gush.
Vaughan Quinn

7PM: THE MISSION
Exploring the issues that impact the lives of Aboriginal people and those at the wrong end of social justice in this country.
Daniel James

8PM: SUPERFLUITY
What good's a desert island if you are all alone? The Superfluity team and guests share and discuss the music that moves them.
Casey Bennetto, Christos Tsiolkas and Clem Bastow

10PM: REQUIEM FOR A SCREAM
Metal, hardcore and otherwise exquisitely heavy and brutal sounds. Soul-shifting noise. Dimension-altering soundscapes. Be crushed and renewed. Lose control.
Mia Timpano

MIDNIGHT: O'TOMORROW
Outsiders, the avant-garde, noise, experimental, folk, jazz, pop music. Underground and other suppressed and forgotten sounds from all over the world. Music is everywhere. From the past to the future. From Brunswick to Burma. From innovators AND idiots... It's midnight. Tomorrow has arrived.
Patrick O'Brien

2AM: FLOP ERA
Pop's strange, spiritual, and strangely spiritual.
Shaad D'Souza

4AM: LOW WATTAGE
Dim all the lights and ease into your Wednesday morning with Liz Watt. A weekly selection of uplifting Low Wattage sounds to set the mood and carry you through the hazy clouds to 6am.
Liz Watt
