THE SPACE BETWEEN THE STARS
On love, loss and the magical power of nature to heal
INDIRA NAIDOO

An uplifting, funny and poignant story of awakening to the power of nature—even urban nature—to heal the deepest hurts.

After her younger sister died suddenly, broadcaster Indira Naidoo’s world was shattered.

As Indira grappled with her heartbreak, an unnoticed universe of infinite beauty revealed itself: pale vanilla clouds pirouetting across the sky, resilient weeds pushing through cracks in the footpath, the magical biodiversity of tiny puddles. With the help of a posse of urban guides, she began to explore how nature—whatever bits of nature are within reach—can heal us during life’s darker chapters, whether nursing a broken heart or an anxious mind.

The Space Between the Stars is a heart-rending, at times funny, and uplifting tribute to love and our innate need to connect to the natural world, a celebration of the reassuring cycle of renewal that sustains and nourishes us all. As long as you can see the stars, you can never truly be lost.

Indira Naidoo is one of Australia’s most popular broadcasters and authors. A passionate advocate for environmental issues, she is author of the bestselling The Edible Balcony and The Edible City.
Health-giving, accessible, delicious recipes, put together with passion and purpose, and enlightening food stories from a civilisation that has not yet lost touch with how to eat.

Nourishing, simple, seasonal food that heals as well as fuels: this way of eating might be popular today, but it has been traditional in Tibet for over 8,000 years. Taste Tibet is a collection of over 80 recipes from the Tibetan plateau written for today’s home cook. Create comforting soups and stews, learn the secrets of hand-pulled noodles, and everything you need to know about making and eating momo dumplings, Tibet’s legendary culinary export.

Award-winning food writer Julie Kleeman and Tibetan cook Yeshi Jampa interweave stories of Yeshi’s childhood in Tibet, and the shared love of food that brought them together. They reveal nomadic Himalayan food culture and practices, including mindful eating and communal cooking—and a way of life that celebrates family, togetherness and respect for food.

Julie Kleeman has been travelling and eating in Asia since 1992. Yeshi Jampa grew up in Tibet, learning to cook inside a yak hair tent. Married with two children, they own and run the acclaimed Taste Tibet restaurant and festival food stall in the UK.
AROUND THE KITCHEN TABLE
Good things to cook, create and do—
the whole year through
SOPHIE HANSEN and ANNIE HERRON

Best-selling Sophie Hansen and her artist and art teacher mum Annie Herron have teamed up—here are recipes to cook, preserves to make, things to sketch, crafts for the not-crafty, and more.

Around The Kitchen Table is an invitation to pause our busy lives—even for half an hour—and cook, create or make something good every day. Written by food writer Sophie Hansen and her mum, art teacher Annie Herron, it celebrates the joy and sense of satisfaction that comes with preparing a simple meal to share, pencilling
a sketch or making a jar of jam to give as a gift.

Organised into seasons, each chapter is packed with inspiration and encouragement, including bright spring
lunches and easy preserves, how to start and finish
a watercolour painting at the beach (or anywhere!), generous picnics for summer days, the joy of Christmas
baking and craft, cosy suppers, autumn sketching adventures and slow cooking and drawing games for cold winter afternoons.

Sophie Hansen is a freelance food writer and author of A Basket by the Door and In Good Company. Sophie’s mum, Annie Herron, is an art teacher, and exhibiting artist and sculptor. They live in country NSW.
