Welcome to Roxbury's Auction no.112

FOREWORD

Welcome to Roxbury's first Fine Jewellery and Designer Goods Auction Event. We are excited to be hosting an auction event like no other, at the stunning event space Smoked Garage in Brisbane's Fortitude Valley. This is where auction hunters can explore our collection of fine jewellery, luxury watches, certified diamonds and gemstones, designer handbags & designer jewellery with a drink or delicacy in hand whilst they browse and bid.

The jewellery section has been a welcome addition to the Roxbury auctions with its diverse offerings injecting a sense of joie de vivre to our listings that have set our bids abuzz.

Our key partner in managing the growth of our jewellery and designer goods department is Sarina Cheney from Independent Jewellery & Gems Valuations. Sarina is a talented jewellery designer, registered NCJV jewellery valuer, qualified gemmologist, and businesswoman who has significantly expanded this section of our auctions, together with her team of professionals with their knowledge, skill set and passion for the industry.

Whilst this auction will focus on fine jewellery, we have also assembled a fabulous collection of luxury designer handbags and accessories from world-renowned fashion houses of Louis Vuitton, Chanel, Dior, Rolex, Cartier and Tiffany & Co.

Extensive efforts are made to ensure all designer goods are genuine; some handbags accompanied with their authenticity card or original purchase receipt. For the fine jewellery, you can bid with confidence with the knowledge that our extensive team of gemmologists, NCJV registered jewellery valuers and jewellers have authenticated every single item; all of which are ready to win and wear.

The jewellery range is as varied as it is exquisite, consisting of rubies, sapphires, and other gemstone rings, halo rings, solitaires, diamond tennis bracelets, pearls, necklaces, antique brooches and more. From simple classics to extravagant designs, there's something for every taste and budget.

With over 350 lots listed for this auction, there are several key pieces of interest including a luxuriously crafted Chanel 18 carat gold chain link watch - a timeless piece in excellent condition and sure to be a star in any collection.

Auction 112 also features certified diamonds and loose gemstones, one of such being a stunning 6.89 carat GIA certified oval tanzanite in a vivid purple-blue hue. Bid on and win this breathtaking gemstone and chat with our sought-after artisans that will be at the event for some creative direction.

Browsing through estate jewellery is a beautiful part of what we do and we often come across a piece that provides us with that tremendous feeling of discovery. One such find is a handmade antique diamond spray brooch circa 1940. Intricately made with a delicate weave of white gold and old cut diamonds weighing a total of 4.24 carats. Precious metals and gemstones were in shortage following the Great Depression and throughout World War II, making this brooch a rare and significant piece of history.

We are encouraging everyone to come and bid - whether you have no experience at auctions or are an avid bidder, as we are certain you'll also enjoy your own thrill of discovery and furthermore - the thrill of a win! With some starting bids at under $100, there's definitely something for everyone.

Don't forget, if you can't make the event at the inspiring Smoked Garage, you can also bid online at our website roxburys.com.au or by downloading our Roxbury's Auction App.

Looking forward to seeing you at the launch of our first Sip & Bid: Roxbury's Fine Jewellery & Designer Goods Auction Event.
