| Summary:     | This circular contains a schedule of sessions for All Abilities Coordinators and Volunteers Information Sessions.                                                                                      |
| Action:      | Members are required to register by email with the names of attendees to secure a position at the selected information session by the dates outlined.                                                  |

To assist clubs with the development of their All Abilities Coordinators and interested volunteers, Surf Life Saving WA will facilitate All Abilities Training and Information Sessions. These sessions will be approximately two hours long and will cover topics about disability, inclusion and adaptation of activities. The table below has the planned schedule of All Abilities Coordinator and Volunteer Training. Attendance is only required at one session, we are offering 3 sessions to provide a variety of options for interested members, hoping that one of the three are convenient. Information Sessions for participating regional clubs will be negotiated separately.
