

2021 Winners

You don't fully realise how annoying you were as a year 9 until you become a Peer Support Leader.

(Caitlin O'Brien, Awatapu College, Awapuni, Palmerston North)

At least Year 13s in Auckland won't have to worry about Level 3 anymore.

(Bridget Maw, Rangi Ruru Girls' School, Merivale, Christchurch)

Papatoetoe High School's NCEA Chemistry students could've created their own vaccine by now.

(Bridget Maw, Rangi Ruru Girls' School, Merivale, Christchurch)

Last week was more chaotic than an NCEA maths paper could ever be.

(Bridget Maw, Rangi Ruru Girls' School, Merivale, Christchurch)

Did you hear the sound of an elevator? That's cause you are not at my NCEA level.

(Binu Kularathne, Westlake Girls' High School, Takapuna, Auckland)

Forget international tourism. If we want to restart the economy, we need to offer guided tours of the new SciPAD workbooks.

(Dani Colombick, Kapiti College, Raumati Beach, Paraparaumu)

Joe Biden tripping up the stairs of Air Force One but still saluting at the top was like getting the right answer with the wrong working.

(Nicole McLaren, Taradale High School, Taradale, Napier)

"To drop out after a minimum wage increase, or not to drop out. That is the question." - every NCEA student this week

(Bridget Maw, Rangi Ruru Girls' School, Merivale, Christchurch)

Sounds like Prince Philip heard about NCEA.

(Bridget Maw, Rangi Ruru Girls' School, Merivale, Christchurch)

If only love for NCEA was contagious like COVID-19.

(Ryder Gee, Liston College, Henderson, Waitakere)

Maybe one of the visiting Aussies would be kind enough to take NCEA back as a souvenir.

(Lexi More, Karori)
