Are you sure you'd like to opt out of Minfos Cloud Backup?

When you opt out of Minfos Cloud Backup, you acknowledge that:

1. You accept full responsibility for the offsite storage of your store's Minfos backups.
2. In the event of your store requiring an offsite backup in order to resume trading, you will need to provide Minfos support with your offsite backup, and:
  - a. You will be liable for all costs associated with attempting to restore your Minfos database if a reliable offsite backup is not available.
  - b. You accept that without Minfos Cloud Backup, our support team may not be able to restore your store's database, which may result in your inability to trade.
3. To comply with your Minfos licence, as outlined in the End User Licence Agreement, it is your responsibility to ensure that your store has a secure and adequate offsite backup of your Minfos data.

We're sorry to hear that you're opting out Minfos Cloud Backup.

Could you let us know your reasons for opting out?
