WELCOME

Welcome to the 2015 AWESOME Festival!

Every year we offer Western Australian children and their families a kaleidoscope of arts experiences from around the world and this year is no exception. As we delve into theatre, music, literature, dance, visual arts and film, the AWESOME Festival is a world of wonder to explore, create and experience.

Our HUGE opening weekend is not to be missed – featuring Dame Lynley Dodd, author of Hairy Maclary and a spectacular concert with Play School's delightful Jay Laga'aia.

We've got BIG circus with Circa's amazing Carnival of the Animals, medium sized circus with The Chipolatas, and Circo Ripopolo's Fazzoletto, a tiny circus from Belgium. There are Caterpillars from New Zealand, Cloud man and Suitcases from Scotland, a dash of Jazzamatazz with Ali McGregor, more disco-dancing in the streets and Wolfe Bowart's beautiful show, LaLaLuna in the State Theatre Centre.

Our local line-up is magnificent, with new shows from Black Swan State Theatre Company and The Blue Room. Future Me by Lewis Horne will excite Lego enthusiasts and don't miss the launch of Meg McKinlay's new book, Bella and the Wandering House. Look out for the Cubby House taking pride of place in the centre of the Festival, designed by participants of DADAA's Artlink program in collaboration with Dunc & Wagnell.

This year in addition to our ASD Guide we are thrilled to offer significant discounts to pension and healthcare card holders, making the event more accessible than ever. This subsidy has been made possible through support from the State Government of WA through the Department of Culture and the Arts.

Massive thanks to our Principal Partner, BHP Billiton and indeed to all of our partners for their faith, generosity and their commitment to the Western Australian community.

I do hope you'll spend some time with us and share in the feast of arts experiences on offer at this year's AWESOME Festival.

Jenny Simpson
CEO/Artistic Director
AWESOME Arts Australia Ltd.

The City of Perth is pleased to host the AWESOME International Arts Festival for Bright Young Things once more in 2015. We are thrilled to support the spectacular program including stunning, world-renowned visual art exhibitions, amazing theatre shows and wonderful interactive activities the whole family can enjoy.

With colourful tents and performers, Perth's premier arts event specifically designed for children and families creates a unique sense of vibrancy within the Cultural Centre and surrounding venues. Whether you are building a future version of yourself in Future Me, enjoying a hilarious miniature circus show all the way from Belgium in Fazzoletto by Circo Ripopolo, this year's program has something on offer that will ignite the imaginations of all children and their grown-ups.

Each October Perth families are presented with a fantastic opportunity to see some of the highest quality performances and exhibitions from around the world, right here on our doorstep. So make sure you explore and have a wonderful 2015 AWESOME Festival.

The Right Honourable Lord Mayor,
Lisa Scaffidi

On behalf of the State Government I am proud to support one of Australia's premier and most-loved family events, the 2015 AWESOME Festival.

As ever, the program is set to inspire and delight young Western Australians, grown-ups, and educators as AWESOME brings a world of wonder to our city.

I am pleased to see the State Library, Western Australian Museum, Perth Theatre Trust and Art Gallery of WA partnering with AWESOME to present a range of events and workshops throughout the festival.

With some of the world's best artists making their way to Perth, it is also wonderful to see Western Australian companies and independent artists taking their place within the line-up.

The AWESOME Festival continues to be highly accessible to families, with the Autism Spectrum Disorder Guide supporting families to participate in the festival and the Department of Culture and the Arts supporting a subsidised ticket program to assist economically disadvantaged families to enjoy the AWESOME Festival.

I encourage children and their families to discover and be amazed by the wonderful arts experiences on offer at the 2015 AWESOME Festival.

John Day
Minister for Culture and the Arts

Over the years the AWESOME Festival has grown in leaps and bounds and in 2015 is expected to attract over 100,000 young people, their families and their educators to the Perth Cultural Centre and surrounding venues.

The AWESOME Festival enables Perth audiences to experience some of the best theatre, dance, and visual art exhibitions from around the world. 2015 is no exception, with perennial favourite author Dame Lynley Dodd being welcomed to Western Australia along with an exhibition of her past works, including artworks from the world-famous Hairy Maclary book series.

The State Government's support, through the Department of Culture and the Arts and Lotterywest, enables AWESOME to contribute to the community by encouraging families to participate in creative and cultural activities.

On behalf of the State Government of Western Australia I would like to wish everyone a wonderful 2015 AWESOME Festival.

INFO

SUBSIDISED TICKETING

Thanks to support from the State Government, through the Department of Culture and the Arts, AWESOME is able to offer a limited number of tickets at a subsidised rate to families who need it most. If you are a Pension or a Health Care Card Holder you can purchase up to 6 tickets for selected shows and events. Tickets are strictly limited and are sold on a first come first served basis, so please ensure you book your tickets early to avoid disappointment. Once the ticket allocation has sold out, the subsidised rate for Pension and Health Care Card holders will no longer apply. Please ensure you bring your valid Pension or Health Care Card with you on the day of your chosen show to gain admission.

Visit www.awesomearts.com/subsidisedtickets for full terms and conditions and pricing to selected events.

*Please note additional booking fees and credit card processing fees may apply.

ASD GUIDE

We are again delivering a comprehensive guide for parents with children with Autism Spectrum Disorder. You can download the guide from awesomearts.com from Friday September 11, 2015.

We had some wonderful feedback last year, and we would again like your input. If you use the guide in 2015, please provide your feedback via the survey, which you can access through the ASD guide.

PHYSICAL THEATRE

VENUE Heath Ledger Theatre,
State Theatre Centre of Western Australia

What if, one night, you found yourself in charge of the light in the moon? And what if, that same night, the moon's lightbulb went out? This is the beginning of one very strange night ... a night called LaLaLuna. A surreal and whimsical tale of the moon's caretaker as he struggles to re-light the darkened moon, LaLaLuna is circus, theatre and film woven together with a poetic and comic physical language all its own. Beloved by AWESOME audiences following his seasons of The Man the Sea Saw and Letter's End, physical theatre master Wolfe Bowart returns to Perth to present his joyful solo creation LaLaLuna.

Pocket a moonbeam and take the journey to a place where gravity isn't always on its best behaviour ... an extraordinary theatrical journey for adults and children alike.

JAZZAMATAZZ!

ALI MCGREGOR

MUSIC

VENUE The Jitterbug Tent – Perth Cultural Centre

The 2015 AWESOME Festival presents a concert of jumpin', jiving' jazz for the kids. Led by the insanely talented (and mother of a toddler) Ali McGregor, this hour of jazzy beats and early 90's references will get your kids singing and prancing, twisting and dancing.

Parents, carers and friends can either join in or grab a drink & watch the youth tire themselves out on the dance floor!

With songs like 'Who let the dogs out?' 'A-Tisket, A-Tasket' and 'Single Ladies' everybody will be 'shufflin' to the be-bop beats and hep-cat treats. Ali and her band are joined by two dancers who rock n roll, swing and jive with the kids, teach them some moves and help keep the atmosphere one of unadulterated fun!

I LOVE MY MUSEUM

INTERACTIVE ACTIVITY

VENUE Western Australian Museum – Perth

We all have our favourite object at the Western Australian Museum. But have you ever taken the time to tell the object (or the world) how you feel about it? Sometimes it is important to find a way of sharing what you love!

The WA Museum is getting ready for the New Museum, which will open in 2020. Now is the time to tell us about your favourite object and what you love about it! Why do you love it? What makes it special to you so that you want to come and see it over and over again?

Come to the WA Museum – Perth and design your own poster, or write a story about your favourite object.

Tell the world what you love about your Museum!

VISUAL ART EXHIBITION

VENUE

Turner Galleries
470 William Street, Northbridge.
Open 11am–5pm Tuesday to Friday.

SOFT STORIES

A Matter of Factory is a unique exhibition from collaborative duo Soft Stories. Made up of curious cardboard structures and stop-motion animations, A Matter of Factory is an installation exploring tensions related to industrialization, and uses handicrafts to present the mass fabrication of the ultimate in designer pets and designer meats: the sausage-dog. A Matter of Factory was exhibited at the Science Centre Singapore, as part of Interplay curated by Ars Electronica, before heading to York for the 2015 York Bazaar. It will be exhibited at Turner Galleries from 22 September to 10 October 2015.
