AWESOME
INTERNATIONAL ARTS FESTIVAL FOR BRIGHT YOUNG THINGS AGED 0 - 12

It is with great pleasure that I present to you the 20th AWESOME Festival!

Reflecting upon festivals past, there are so many people who should be proud of their role in shaping this wonderful event.

In 2016 Western Australian children and their families will be able to experience achingly beautiful puppetry from Spain, gutsy and vibrant dance from Scotland and an array of experiences and performances that capture the human condition in all of its wonder from places near and far.

Shining a light on local talent, I am delighted to present the world premiere of New Owner by The Last Great Hunt, and also to share in the 40th birthday commemorations of Fremantle Press as we celebrate Western Australian picture books in the State Library of WA. In another first, I'd like to welcome Lex Randolph as our inaugural Festival Artist-in-Residence.

As champions of demanding the best arts experiences for our children, the 2016 AWESOME Festival will explore the 18 Principles of the Rights of Children to Engage with Arts and Culture. From Italy, this Charter underpins all that we stand for and I do hope you'll take some time to experience this lovely exhibition and reflect upon its importance in our lives.

I stand tall on the shoulders of so many people and partners to whom we owe a great debt of thanks. You know who you are and these past 20 years you have collectively changed the lives of many children. Heartfelt thanks to all, especially our Principal Partner, BHP Billiton, for their commitment and belief in making a difference.

And finally, I'd like to pay tribute to one of our quiet achievers. In 2007 our Production Manager, James Savage and I both joined AWESOME. Always behind the scenes, James has been a calm and steady hand on the wheel, ensuring that the Festival runs smoothly and regularly achieving the impossible. As we deliver our 10th Festival together, I'd like to acknowledge his contribution, friendship and exquisite barbequing skills!

Wishing you all a truly AWESOME Festival!

Jenny Simpson
CEO/Artistic Director
AWESOME Arts Australia Ltd.

WELCOME

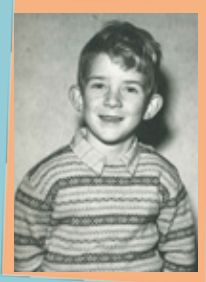

Welcome to the 2016 AWESOME Festival. This year AWESOME celebrates 20 years of presenting some of the best theatre, dance and visual arts from Western Australia and around the world to local children and families.

The Liberal National Government's support, through Department of Culture and the Arts and Lotterywest, enables AWESOME to contribute to the community by making it accessible for families to participate in arts and cultural activities.

In 2016 the AWESOME Festival is expected to attract over 180,000 young people and their families to the Perth Cultural Centre during the October school holidays in an explosion of creativity and fun.

On behalf of the State Government of Western Australia, I wish everyone a wonderful 2016 AWESOME Festival and congratulate the AWESOME Festival team on 20 great years of service to the community.

The Hon. Colin Barnett MLA,
Premier of Western Australia

On behalf of the State Government I am proud to support one of Australia's premier family events, the 2016 AWESOME Festival.

2016 marks the 20th year of the Festival, which has given hundreds of thousands of children the opportunity to engage with and participate in performances, exhibitions, activities and workshops.

It is wonderful to see the State Library of Western Australia, Art Gallery of WA, the WA Museum and The State Theatre Centre, partner with the Festival, bringing new ways for the young and young at heart to engage with the State's cultural institutions.

This year's program offers up the best in the arts for children aged 0 to 12, with artists from as far as Scotland, Spain and Belgium. There is also a host of Western Australian companies and artists being presented, including New Owner, a new work from Perth based theatre company, The Last Great Hunt.

With initiatives such as the Autism Spectrum Disorder Guide, designed to make the Festival accessible to all families, and an Audio Descriptive Service for New Owner produced by DADAA, the 2016 AWESOME Festival is more inclusive than ever.

It is with great pleasure that I encourage children and their families to discover, be delighted and inspired by the experiences the 2016 AWESOME Festival has to offer.

John Day
Minister for Culture and the Arts

Discover and be inspired by the arts.

We are proud to have supported AWESOME Arts as Principal Partner since 2014, and together we engage over 190,000 Western Australians through art each year.

HOW TŌ WRITE FUNNY SONGS WITH JOSH EARL

VICTORIA

CREATIVE WORKSHOP

Award winning comedian and songwriter Josh Earl hosts this informal and collaborative song writing workshop tapping into each child's creativity to help them write and perform their own funny songs. Ideal for kids with or without any musical training, the only thing required is some imagination.

COMEDY

Funny man Josh Earl is back with another hilarious show for kids. After the success of My Family Is Weirder Than Your Family in the 2015 AWESOME Festival, Josh brings you a brand new show about a small town, a big problem and the creativity of a kind boy who brings them all together.

Oliver James lives right in the middle of Greyston Road. Well, not right in the middle, because that would be quite dangerous, but off to the side next to the footpath... in a house. Oliver puts up with a lot—his Dad is obsessed with toilets, his mum is too lazy to walk up the stairs to her treadmill and Oliver is, well, just Oliver.

Oliver Up A Tree is a heart-warming story full of songs, silliness and a hundred tiny teddy bears. Join Josh Earl as he masterfully weaves storytelling and song to delight both bright young things, and their grown ups!

CHARTER OF CHILDREN'S RIGHTS TO ART AND CULTURE

LA BARRACA

ITALY

EXHIBITION

The Charter of Children's Rights to Art and Culture consists of 18 principles expressed in 27 languages that state the right of all children, all over the world, to enjoy art and culture freely.

Developed in Europe, this exhibition is designed to champion the rights of children in relation to exploration of the arts. This wonderful project, contributed to by dozens of illustrators and translators, will enlighten and delight.

We are thrilled to have this important Charter translated into Noongar language by Coleen Sherratt (Noongar Wadjak), recognizing Noongar culture and language as our first culture and reinforcing the principle that children as citizens have the right to experience and participate in the arts.

EXHIBITION

An exploration of what it is to migrate to another land...

This interactive exhibition asks us to reflect upon the experiences of people in our community who have come to live in Western Australia from another land.

What would you bring from your home land?

How would you make friends in your new country?

Will you need to learn a new language?

What will the food be like?

Come and ponder these questions with us and experience some of our local stories of immigration.

THEATRE

Catch Madame Lark with her musical-saw as she takes flight vocally around the city, whipping up her own alphabet of vocal interpretations developed after her childhood synaesthesia, where objects became imbued with sound. Along with her peculiar fascination with hairstyles and shapes, Madame Lark offers an affectionate and surprisingly accurate nod to the guttural chatter and warblings of the birdcalls around us.

Multitalented Australian artist Christine Johnston, best known as one third of The Kransky Sisters, will delight all ages with her harmonious symphony of ridiculousness.
