Drug and Alcohol Counselling

Drug and Alcohol Counselling

We offer free, individualised and voluntary support for people of any age who are interested in addressing and making change to their alcohol and/or other drug use.

What we offer:

- drug and alcohol counselling
- information and education
- harm reduction
- relapse prevention
- assistance to connect with other services.

Who do we support:

Our service is for people for all ages and backgrounds who are interested in addressing their alcohol and/or other drug concerns, and are located in the Adelaide metropolitan area.

Referrals

We accept self-referrals, and referrals from family members, health services and other support agencies.

Find us

We are located at 45 Wakefield Street, Adelaide but we also offer phone sessions.
