I would like to know why Nimbin and the sacred culdera of wollumbin is not protected from this rape of the land? There are residential homes all around that area. This is sacred land and there is enough gas in victoria to keep australia happy for hundreds of years to come. Why on earth are you targeting some of the most sacred areas? This community has said clearly that we want none of it. Why are we the people being ignored??

Ps. I tried to submit it as a comment but its frozen.
