

“A green, vibrant and connected community”

There is more than enough High Rise Development planned for the NEW AREA which means the existing development in KELLYVILLE should remain Low Density only.

Any rezoning of this area from Low Density Residential to High Density Residential is a contradiction of the areas planned intent.....

Figure 20: Impression of the creek as open space between the new and existing development

Figure 20: Impression of the creek as open space between the new and existing development