The Central Coast needs action from all our local politicians to display leadership and boost the local economy. I have made recommendations to Lucy Wicks and Debra O'Neil plus the local Lord Mayor. A 20 year plan is flawed from the start. No one knows how the Central Coast will develop in the next 20 years. Start with a five year plan. Quite frankly we need action not long winded 20 year plans! Central Coast youth are faced with unemployment, it is 8 times more difficult to obtain work on the Central Coast compared to the Northern Beaches! Our political parties and local politicians are 100% responsible! Yet our local politicians won't take responsibility. We need more residential land to boost the Housing Industry and the local economy, we need to boost advertising of the Central Coast as a tourist destination for Sydney residents, we need Somersby Industrial area to be expanded, we need a waterfront development at Gosford with restaurants and a marina, we need an IT hub for business people to utilize; we need employment and training programs for youth, we need a Cultural Centre for Gosford. We need action!
