

DFRO 2024 Bulletin Announcements

Distribution Date: Monday, 15 January 2024 [for inclusion in church bulletins on Sabbath, 20 January]

Disasters can happen anywhere, to anyone

Floods, cyclones, earthquakes, and conflict devastate millions of lives every year. In the blink of an eye, every day people have their lives turned upside down, and the need for support is immediate.

ADRA's Disaster and Famine Relief Offering is on February 10. These funds will help ensure ADRA is Always Ready and Always There to help people in their time of need. You can also give online now at adra.org.au/respond.

Distribution Date: Monday, 22 January 2024 [for inclusion in church bulletins on Sabbath, 27 January]

Help us be ready for the next disaster

During the last 12 months, your support has helped ADRA respond to floods, cyclones, earthquakes, famine, and the protracted Ukraine crisis. Having funds available means ADRA can provide immediate assistance to those who need it most when disaster strikes.

On February 10, Adventist churches will be collecting funds for ADRA's Disaster and Famine Relief Offering. You can also give online at adra.org.au/respond to help ADRA be Always Ready and Always There in times of disaster.

Distribution Date: Monday, 29 January 2024 [for inclusion in church bulletins on Sabbath, 3 February]

When a disaster strikes, the vulnerable suffer most

When disaster strikes, it's the most vulnerable that suffer first and suffer the most.

People living in poverty are hardworking and resilient, but disasters push them even further into disadvantage. Your support of ADRA's Disaster and Famine Relief Offering on February 10 will help ensure that we are Always Ready and Always There to help those most in need in times of disaster. You can also give now at adra.org.au/respond

Distribution Date: Monday, 5 February 2024 [for inclusion in church bulletins on Sabbath, 10 February]

ADRA Disaster and Famine Relief Offering Today!

Today is ADRA's Disaster and Famine Relief Offering. Your offering will go towards helping ensure that, in times of disaster, ADRA is Always Ready and Always There to help those who need it most. You can also give online at adra.org.au/respond

Distribution Date: Monday, 12 February 2024 [for inclusion in church bulletins on Sabbath 17 February]

Your donation ensures ADRA is Always Ready and Always There

Thank you for your support of ADRA's Disaster and Famine Relief Offering last week. Donations to ADRA's disaster fund help ensure that ADRA is Always Ready and Always There for people in times of disaster.

It's not too late to donate if you haven't had a chance. Visit adra.org.au/respond to help the most vulnerable when disaster strikes.

Distribution Date: Monday, 19 February 2024 [for inclusion in church bulletins on Sabbath, 24 February]

When the media moves on, ADRA is still there

Mega disasters make headlines, but when the media moves on, ADRA is still there.

With a strong global presence in over 100 countries, ADRA is well-placed to help in times of need. As well as providing immediate assistance, ADRA works with communities for months and sometimes years to recover and rebuild.

You can support ADRA's disaster relief by donating today. Give online at adra.org.au/respond