

CONFLICT OF INTEREST FORM

Seventh-day
Adventist Church Sydney

EDITION: JANUARY 2026

CONFLICT OF INTEREST FORM

A Conflict of Interest Register helps maintain transparency, integrity, and accountability within church governance and managed by the church Clerk and or Treasurer. It ensures that decisions are made in the best interest of the ministry, free from personal or financial bias. By documenting potential conflicts and actions taken, the register protects the church's reputation, promotes trust among members, and complies with ethical and legal standards.

For enquiries regarding this form or any Treasury-related processes, please contact: gsctnosupport@adventist.org.au.

Name of Church:

NAME	POSITION	DATE INTEREST DECLARED	NATURE OF POTENTIAL CONFLICT	ACTION TAKEN
Example – John Smith	Board Member	31/01/2026	John's building business is quoting on church hall extensions	John was requested to leave the board meeting while this matter was discussed

CONFLICT OF INTEREST FORM

A Conflict of Interest Register helps maintain transparency, integrity, and accountability within church governance and managed by the church Clerk and or Treasurer. It ensures that decisions are made in the best interest of the ministry, free from personal or financial bias. By documenting potential conflicts and actions taken, the register protects the church's reputation, promotes trust among members, and complies with ethical and legal standards.

For enquiries regarding this form or any Treasury-related processes, please contact: gsctnosupport@adventist.org.au.

Name of Church:

NAME	POSITION	DATE INTEREST DECLARED	NATURE OF POTENTIAL CONFLICT	ACTION TAKEN

