Dear folks,

I am a member of the Yarra Riverkeepers' Association and want to support their views to you. I particularly want to emphasise the importance of measurable, cumulative outcomes over time to ensure that the plan is working effectively, as well as a detailed plan for use of the river by citizens at crucial places while still allowing for habitat and environmental protection.

With this plan, the devil is in the detail. Aspirations are fine, but if they are not measured or finely planned they are next to useless.

Best wishes,
