

ENHANCING OUR DANDENONG CREEK

2013

Enhancing our Dandenong Creek
(EODC) program established

July 2014

Natural Amenity Working Group
(NAWG) established

January to June 2015

Working together with NAWG to identify priority projects

July 2015

Designing and planning for billabongs and daylighting Dandenong Creek works

March to December 2015

Researching and investigating for native fish habitat sites

May 2015

Designing and planning for native fish habitats

September 2015

Developing a behaviour change program in industrial area of Old Joes Creek

January 2016

Sampling and monitoring
Dandenong Creek for pollutants

January 2016

Collaborating with Heathmont History
Group to uncover the rich history of Dandenong Creek

March 2016

Constructing fish habitats

December 2016

Designing and planning for
Daylighting Dandenong Creek

February 2017

Collecting fish from key genetic sites
as part of fish stocking strategy

April 2017

Translocating 600 fish from breeding sites to their new homes

August 2017

Installing 15 new interpretive signs

September 2017

Installing Fluker posts

December 2017

Commencing construction for Daylighting works