ABOUT THIS PLAN

This plan outlines Council’s vision for the City of Port Phillip and the key deliverables between 2013 and 2017.

Three years into the plan, Council has reflected on its progress and made some adjustments to the plan. Mayor’s Message

Cr Bernadene Voss
Mayor
City of Port Phillip

The Councillors and I are pleased to present the draft City of Port Phillip Council Plan 2013-2017 (Year 4) for consultation. This revised plan seeks to deliver a Healthy, Resilient, Engaged and Vibrant City.

This is the final year of this Council’s four-year plan. We have made significant progress over the last three years, delivering a range of key asset improvements including, North Port Oval, Clarendon Street Family Centre, Emerald Hill Library, Fitzroy Street upgrade and Bubup Womindjeka Family and Children’s Centre. We have also delivered other significant programs including, the St Kilda Triangle Master Plan, $7 million in ongoing efficiency savings and Vibrant Villages. We continue to work on our Toward Zero strategy to support Council and the community to become more sustainable.

We are committed to reviewing our plan each year when developing our annual budget. The review this year has focused on the key actions and indicators in the plan to ensure we are on track to deliver the community’s expectations in this, the final year of our term of Council.

In February and March this year, the Councillors and I spoke with members of our community at various events across the City. We also reached out to harder to reach groups like young people.

To help us better understand your views and expectations, we asked targeted questions about the relative priority of our services, options to address funding challenges, and what longer-term initiatives we should be thinking about.

We received more than 1,000 pieces of feedback through the engagement. This is a fantastic result and a significant increase in participation from last year. The feedback reinforces our commitment to services that improve our public spaces and amenity, contribute to a safer community and support community wellbeing. The engagement also suggests that the community supports us reviewing services and focusing on those that deliver best value and support people most in need.

Community feedback, in conjunction with our progress to date delivering to the plan, suggests that only minor adjustments are required this year. Those adjustments ensure that we are using the most appropriate and transparent measures to track delivery of our Council Plan.

This year, Council will deliver a number of significant and exciting developments including upgrades to Acland Street, St Kilda and the Gasworks Building in Albert Park. We are also investing in road safety improvements in Port Melbourne and St Kilda and sustainability initiatives at the South Melbourne Market. We will also make considerable progress on other key priorities such as the Ferrars Street education and community precinct in Fishermans Bend and implementing our walk and bike plans.

Delivering best value services that the community values is a focus for this Council. This year we will build on our commitment to ensuring our services are effective and efficient and deliver great outcomes for our community.

We invite you to have your say on the revised Council Plan.

We also encourage you to visit www.knowyourcouncil.vic.gov.au to find out more about how the City of Port Phillip is performing compared to other Victorian councils.

We look forward to reading your submissions and thank you for helping us to continue to build a healthy, engaged, resilient and vibrant Port Phillip.

CITY OF PORT PHILLIP
- A SNAPSHOT

The City of Port Phillip is located south of the Melbourne city centre, on the northern shore of Port Phillip Bay. Port Phillip is one of the oldest areas of European settlement in Melbourne, known and treasured by many for its urban village feel and artistic expression.

Port Phillip is a city of neighbourhoods, defined by heritage buildings, distinct shopping precincts and tree-lined streets. The major villages of Bay Street (Port Melbourne), Clarendon Street (South Melbourne), Fitzroy and Acland streets (St Kilda) and Carlisle Street (Balaclava) provide retail, leisure and entertainment experiences, each with its own character.

Significant employment areas in Port Phillip include the St Kilda Road office district, and industrial, warehousing and manufacturing districts in South Melbourne and Port Melbourne.

The foreshore stretches over 11 kilometres, and public open spaces make the City desirable to residents and visitors. Port Phillip is well served by public transport. The network includes St Kilda and Port Melbourne light rail, two railway stations on the Sandringham line, and tram and bus routes.

Port Phillip is a sought-after inner city area of Melbourne. The physical environment will change as the City continues to experience significant residential development. Substantial growth is anticipated over the next 40 years in the Fishermans Bend Urban Renewal Area on the northern edge of the City.

Valuing our history, ensuring a sense of place, and planning for the future of a dynamic and evolving city continues to be a challenge.

Valuing our history, ensuring a sense of place, and planning for the future of a dynamic and evolving city continues to be a challenge.
The people

Port Phillip has a diverse community. It is estimated that in 2016 more than 107,127 people live in the City, an increase of 9.2 per cent in the last five years. Our population will continue to grow. Fishermans Bend is expected to be home to around 80,000 residents and provide jobs for 40,000 over the next four decades.

Port Phillip is the most densely populated municipality in Victoria. St Kilda is the largest neighbourhood and South Melbourne is the smallest.

Approximately 53.5 per cent of our population is between 25 and 49 years of age, while 14.9 per cent are over 60 years old. The number of young people (17 years and younger) has increased slightly in recent years.

The average household is small (two people), but there are many families living in Port Phillip. Our community is one of the most educated compared with other metropolitan councils.

There are some wealthy households, but approximately 16 per cent of households are classified as low income. The majority of our residents rent their homes and around eight per cent of our residents live in community or public housing.

More than 18,000 Port Phillip residents were born in non-English speaking countries (around 18.5 per cent) and 31 per cent were born overseas. Port Phillip also attracts a large number of visitors, approximately four million each year.

The rich diversity of our community, will continue to play a significant role in shaping Port Phillip’s future.

REVIEWING OUR FUTURE FOCUS 2013-17

The Council Plan 2013-17 was adopted by Council in June 2013.

Each year Council is required to review its four-year Council Plan. This year’s review of the City of Port Phillip Council Plan 2013-17 has built on the work and analysis undertaken in previous years that helped Councillors determine their vision for an engaged, healthy, resilient and vibrant city.

To update this plan, we asked for the community’s views on how to tackle some of the challenges we face and what services they value. We received more than 1,000 pieces of feedback during pop-up engagement events, open house sessions, stakeholder meetings, and through our online survey. People also engaged with us through social media.

Survey responses suggest that community safety and amenity and public space services are most highly valued by our community. City planning, design and compliance and community wellbeing are also important. Services ranked as lower priority include vibrancy, culture and heritage services and governance and engagement.

The majority of respondents support tightening service provision to address the funding gap.

Responses to the open question about longer-term initiatives reflected the breadth of our role and touched on our changing and growing population, the impact of climate change, development, and ongoing financial sustainability.

PLANNING AND REPORTING FRAMEWORK

Council is committed to a continuous cycle of planning, resourcing, reporting and review to ensure it delivers the best outcomes for the community.

Council has a robust planning framework in place to support the delivery of the Council Plan. Sitting alongside the Council Plan are the Municipal Health and Wellbeing Plan and the Port Phillip Planning Scheme. Together these high level plans ensure the current and future health and wellbeing of the City.

Council also has plans and strategies that provide greater analysis and detail to address specific policy objectives. Within the organisation, department and individual plans align to support the delivery of the Council Plan objectives.

Council’s 10-Year Financial Plan provides the framework for allocating resources to the Council Plan objectives and for ensuring sound financial management. The 10-Year Financial Plan also shapes our medium-term strategic resource plan and short-term annual budget.

The timing of each plan is critical to achieving the planned outcomes. The council plan and strategic resource plan must be completed by 30 June following a general election and are reviewed each year when we develop our annual budget.
