

Permits type reference guide

All permit type and price (where applicable) changes listed below take effect 1 July 2021.

Eligibility, number of parking permits or vouchers per household and other changes take effect 1 July 2021 for new applicants and 1 July 2025 for existing permit holders.

| Permit typesPrior to Policy implementation date   | Permit typesAfter Policy implementation date   |
|--|---|
| Agency Parking PermitCommunity Organisation Parking PermitCommunity Service Parking PermitDisabled Persons Parking PermitFor organisations (temporary and permanent) | Community Non-Profit Parking Permit  |
| Combined Parking PermitCombined annual Resident and Foreshore Parking Permit  | Resident Parking Permit (if eligible) and single-use, short-term Foreshore Parking Vouchers .   |
| Disabled Persons Parking PermitFor individuals (temporary and permanent)  | Disability Parking Permit  |
| Foreshore Club Parking Permit   | Foreshore Club Parking PermitNo change to permit type  |
| Foreshore Parking Permit  | Foreshore Parking VouchersSingle-use, short-term Foreshore Parking Vouchers purchased in smaller booklets.Households will be able to purchase a maximum of 60 Foreshore Parking Vouchers every two months, up to a maximum of 360 vouchers per year. |
| Foreshore Surf Lifesaving Parking Permit  | Foreshore Lifesaving Parking PermitNo change to permit type  |
| Musicians Loading Permit  | Musicians Loading PermitNo change to permit type   |

Residents are not required to purchase parking permits. Only households adjacent to prohibitive parking restrictions (i.e. No Stopping, No Parking or a Permit Zone) or timed parking restrictions can apply for parking permits.

All permit type and price (where applicable) changes listed below take effect 1 July 2021.

Eligibility, number of parking permits or vouchers per household and other changes take effect 1 July 2021 for new applicants and 1 July 2025 for existing permit holders.

| Prior to Policy implementation date   | After Policy implementation date  |
|---|---|
| Party Parking Permit   | Visitor Parking Vouchers (if eligible) or Temporary Parking Permit  |
| Resident Parking Permit  | Resident Parking PermitPermitted to park in a designated Residential Parking Area.   |
| Temporary Parking PermitUsed for <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• publicity events</li><li>• filming</li><li>• commercial or residential relocation (free of charge for residential relocation)</li><li>• goods and material deliveries</li><li>• short-term relocation (up to three days maximum).</li></ul> | Temporary Parking PermitExpanded to include party guests and tradespeople.   |
| Tradesperson Parking Permit  | Visitor Parking Vouchers (if eligible) or Temporary Parking Permits   |
| Visitor Parking Permit   | Visitor Parking VouchersSingle-use, short-term Visitor Parking Vouchers purchased in smaller booklets.Households will be able to purchase a maximum of 60 Visitor Parking Vouchers every two months up to a maximum of 360 vouchers per year from the date of purchase.Each voucher allows a vehicle to be parked in the relevant Residential Parking Area for up to 24 hours. |

Residents are not required to purchase parking permits. Only households adjacent to prohibitive parking restrictions (i.e. No Stopping, No Parking or a Permit Zone) or timed parking restrictions can apply for parking permits.