

- Work collaboratively as part of the Committee;
- Work in an open and honest fashion, and with respect for each other;
- Understand that at all times it will be necessary to listen to and negotiate different points of view and perspectives, and to make compromises accordingly;
- Respect each other's opinions and consider the view of each member to be of equal importance;
- Refrain from any form of conduct that may cause a reasonable person unwarranted offence or embarrassment;
- Undertake to fairly present the discussion and information provided at the Committee to their local communities

Problem Solving

- If a problem is unresolved or a member has a dispute or complaint, it should first be raised with the Chairperson who will seek to resolve the matter with the necessary parties.
- If the matter cannot be resolved, if appropriate, the matter can be presented to the Committee for further consideration and action.
- If the matter is still unresolved, it can then be presented to Council for consideration and action. Council reserves the right to take whatever action it deems appropriate, in the event of gross misconduct by a Committee member. Dismissal from the committee can be ordered.
- Councils Complaints Management policy will be followed.

DRAFT