

Wildlife Act Review

Submission Comment 60:

Contributor: Individual

Primary interests:

- Protection and conservation of wildlife and habitat

Comment

And there you have it. The one paragraph that puts fear into any wildlife advocate. "It largely exists to protect exotic game animals like deer, and to regulate the destruction of native wildlife. It provides no direct protection for wildlife habitat – and the regulations give exemptions to the logging industry." The logging industry...purveyor of mass destruction of habitat.

Provided May 31/2021