The Communications and Community Engagement Plan must consider and where appropriate address matters of interest or concern to the following stakeholders, and provide for the appointment of a dedicated liaison officer (as appropriate) -

- Municipalities
- Recreation, sporting and community groups
- Schools and other educational institutions
- Potentially affected residents and property owners
- Potentially affected business
- Other public facilities in proximity
- Religious and worship groups
- Vulnerable groups
- Traditional owners
- Public transport users.