

This is a great move. I am surprised that it has not been done sooner and if anything I think the percentage should be higher as this is a non renewable resource that the people of Victoria should reap the benefits of as much as possible. Given that sovereignty was never ceded, the majority of the funds (if not all) given to the traditional owners of the area where the mines are.