

Privacy collection statement

The Department of Environment, Land, Water and Planning (DELWP) is committed to protecting personal information provided by you in accordance with the principles of the Victorian privacy laws.

For more information read DELWP's Information Privacy Policy at www.delwp.vic.gov.au/privacy.

The personal information in your submission is collected by DELWP to administer the public consultation process only. Your contact details may be used by DELWP or its contracted service providers under confidentiality agreements to survey you about your experience with DELWP.

Your submission has been collected by DELWP for the purpose of developing the Anglesea Futures Land Use Plan. DELWP may do the following with your submission (your personal information will not be included):

- Publish a copy of your submission on the DELWP website or other Victorian Government website.
- Quote directly from your feedback in the DELWP response to feedback and subsequent regulatory impact assessment.
- Make available to other Victorian Government agencies.

For transparency and accountability, the contents of your submission may be published on a Victorian Government website which is accessible worldwide. Any person may view your comments. Your comments may remain on external servers, even once your comments are removed from the original website it was published on.

All submissions are public documents and may be accessed by any member of the public unless you request, and your comments are given, confidential status.

If you are making comment as an organisation, then your comments may be published, including the name of your organisation. If you are making comments as an individual, then your comments may be published, including your postcode but with no other details.

You have the right to access and correct your personal information. Requests for access should be sent to the Manager Privacy, P.O. Box 500 East Melbourne 3002 or contact by phone on 03 9637 8697
