

Wildlife Act Review

Submission Comment 27:

Contributor: Individual

Primary interests:

- Protection and conservation of wildlife and habitat

Comment

Although I am a resident of NSW, our wildlife knows no borders. Australia's record in terms of wildlife conservation is deplorable, so I hope the Victorian legislation is updated to ensure the greatest possible protection for our native flora and fauna. I made a full submission to the recent review of the Federal Act, but with our current federal government, I feel it is essential that the states at least have their own strong environmental laws

Provided May 08/2021