

Wildlife Act Review

Submission Comment 105:

Contributor: Individual

Primary interests:

- Private and/or commercial keeping, breeding, trading, displaying and/or processing of wildlife or wildlife products
- Management and control of wildlife causing problems or damage
- Protection and conservation of wildlife and habitat

Comment

I just have one main point for consideration - I think that the wildlife permits should not include species that feed exclusively on other protected species; eg. the Burton's legless lizard which feeds only on small skinks. This is also true for many small elapid snakes. I think it is self evident why the entire list should be reviewed in this light. Thanks very much for the chance to comment.

Provided June 8/2021