

Wildlife Act Review

Submission Comment 210:

Contributor: Individual – Jan Harrison

Primary interests:

- Protection and conservation of wildlife and habitat

Comment

I worry that there is not enough legislation put into place to protect endangered species like our victorian faunal emblem "the leadbeaters possum" who are on the endangered species list simply disappearing due to habitat loss. I worry that Vic Forests will log old growth forest for profits rather than looking at the impact of their logging on the homes of many endangered species that have no where else to go after their homes are logged

Provided June 25/2021