Subject: My submission on sales inspections

Subject: My submission on sales inspections / open-for-inspections:

My submission:

It has to be understood that, although landlords own the properties, they are the HOMES of renters and need to be respected as such. NO-ONE should have the right to enter a rental property got ANY TUPE of inspection without the express permission of the tenant whose privacy and belongings (which are of extreme value) are not only at the mercy of an inattentive representative or owner but could possibly be at risk as a result. I was the victim of one such inspection.
