

I believe the system proposed here is fair and equitable and the large producers should be able to afford this rate. I also believe this will help the public image of the Victorian gold mining industry by indicating that it is of direct benefit to all Victorians.

I welcome the opportunity to comment.

Peter O'Donnell