

Comment

It is a good thing, long overdue.

The cost to me for each option is not large, in my view best to follow Queensland.

It would be good if one registration worked for all states, that is there was cross recognition of registration, at the moment that would require Victoria to recognize the Queensland scheme and visa versa.

Name

Charles Esson

Email address

[REDACTED]