

A History of LGBTIQ Victoria in 100 Places and Objects

| WE'D LIKE YOUR HELP TO REVEAL OUR HISTORY!

The Australian Lesbian and Gay Archives (ALGA) is undertaking a study of LGBTIQ heritage across the state in partnership with Heritage Victoria (HV) and the Equality Branch, Department of Premier and Cabinet.

The study will identify places and objects of historical significance to the LGBTIQ community from from as far back as records reveal to 2020. We are seeking input from organisations and individuals in all regions of Victoria.

If you'd like to contribute, go to:

engage.vic.gov.au

by 28 February 2020 to make a submission.

For more information contact:

Graham Willett (ALGA): heritage100@alga.org.au

