

Overall, seems good, I appreciate the increased recognition and participation of indigenous heritage and values, would like to see a lot more of this.

Management of water for the benefit of wetlands and our native flora and fauna is most important to me.

I am totally opposed to any consideration of feral animals in national parks in water management decisions.

Anonymous