

Wildlife Act Review

Submission Comment 268:

Contributor: Individual

Primary interests:

- Compliance and enforcement
- Protection and conservation of wildlife and habitat
- Research relating to wildlife

Comment

So many issues. Habitat conservation is crucial to wildlife survival. Old growth forests are of special value to wildlife. Cruel methods of management re nuisance wildlife is unacceptable. Laws that protect wildlife need consistent enforcement and sufficiently trained staff to do it. Scientific research needs to be done by impartial and independent professionals and learnings used to protect wildlife and habitat.

Provided July 03/2021