

EXCLUSION ORDER

ORDER PURSUANT TO SECTION 24 OF THE INQUIRIES ACT 2014

Commissioner: Penny Armytage

Date of Order: 10 July 2019

It is ordered that:

1. Pursuant to Section 24 of the Inquiries Act 2014 (Vic), access to the Royal Commission's proceeding to hear the oral evidence of the witnesses referred to as the pseudonyms "John Murray" and "Kate Dillon" on 12 July 2019 until excused, is limited to:
 - a. the Commissioners, Royal Commission staff, Counsel and the solicitors assisting the Royal Commission;
 - b. any persons supporting or representing "John Murray" or "Kate Dillon", as permitted by the Commissioners; and
 - c. parties with leave to appear at the time that the oral evidence of these witnesses is being received by the Royal Commission and the legal representatives of those parties.
2. A copy of this order is to be placed next to the door of the room where the hearing is being conducted.

Notes:

1. This order has been made having regard to the matters set out in sections 24(1)(a), (b) and (e) of the Inquiries Act.
2. Pursuant to section 48(1) of the Inquiries Act, it is an indictable offence for a person (including a body corporate) to knowingly or recklessly contravene an order of a Commissioner under section 24(1).
Penalty: 600 penalty units or imprisonment for 5 years.

Penny Armytage
Chair