What are your suggestions to improve the Victorian community's understanding of mental illness and reduce stigma and discrimination?

See recommendations from Vicki Wilde. Better facilities at Public Hospitals away from ICE Addicts. Respect from hospital staff.

What is already working well and what can be done better to prevent mental illness and to support people to get early treatment and support?

██████████ is the only thing that has helped me and that is flawed as well. Make support systems not 9 - 5 as my mental health certainly doesn't run to a daily schedule.

What is already working well and what can be done better to prevent suicide?

Have people listen when they are reached out to instead of not listening and just saying call 000.

What makes it hard for people to experience good mental health and what can be done to improve this? This may include how people find, access and experience mental health treatment and support and how services link with each other.
