

CALD supports

Raising a child with a disability comes with unique challenges, especially for parents and carers who are new to Australia and learning a different language.

If you're from a culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) community, know that you're not alone. There are organisations that understand your journey and are here to support you.

Kin Advocacy

Kin Advocacy helps people with disabilities and their families from different cultures. They provide advice and programs, like English lessons for people with learning disabilities.
