To whom it may concern

Trade reference for Mark Mathot.

Mark Mathot has been working for Choices Flooring for more than 7 years.

Marks work is at a high professional level, and I would regard him as a flooring craftsman.

He is diligent at the work he performs and is a "on his feet thinker ". He is currently my main hard flooring installer as he will continue to be for many years to come.

Its always good to have a competent tradesman and someone who is mindful of the customer who we are installing for. No call backs, no defects and never any negative feedback.

In this industry a professional who is reliable and trustworthy is an asset to any business. I enjoy marks company and would not hesitate to recommend him for any installation or task that he undertakes.

Yours Sincerely

Alistair Jones
