

Who Are We?

Hosies Homes Albury Wodonga Local Owner and Operator.

Hosies Homes Albury Wodonga is a locally owned Family Business with Gary Hosie being the Local Licensed Builder and Owner. Janet Hosie (wife) is the book keeper and works in our local office, Matt Hosie (son) working as supervisor/builder. We are a Multi Award Winning Local Owner Operator with five generations of family building tradition.

Gary Hosie will work through any problems or concerns you may have with anything from landscaping, design, colours etc. All our colour Consultation is here in Wodonga at our Office in Bassett Street. All of our staff are approachable with many of the team either being family, or friends for over 20 years. This guarantees the best possible cohesive service available.

We will meet all your requirements and have a fixed price quote whether it's on your design or ours. We will pride ourselves on our transparency when it comes to building costs and work to reduce cost escalations. Hosies Homes are always available to talk to about any and every aspect of your project and when we promise something, we always deliver. Hosies Homes Albury Wodonga will always construct the highest quality home and use uncompromised building practices and systems. We know what works and what lasts; not only in the materials we choose and the tradespeople we employ, but how we operate, build and finally deliver your home.
