

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

Seeking talent for a BIG photo shoot – no experience necessary!

WHEN: July 7th 8am-12pm

8am sign in, pictures from 9am-12pm. We finish early if all goes to plan

WHERE: Fremont, under the north side of the Fremont Bridge

(no, not the Troll, she's under the Aurora/George Washington Bridge!)

WHO: Melissa Cameron

Seattle based Australian-born jeweler and visual artist

WHY: Protesting gun violence in the USA

73 people in one photo wearing the guns that killed on January 1st, 2017 in the US. Each volunteer will wear a pendant like those pictured below

SIGN UP & DETAILS: melissacameron.net/blog

8am meet in the parking lot under the Fremont Bridge to sign release forms and receive loaned pendant on chain to wear.

9am stand alongside 72 other pendant-wearers, while we take an epic group photo.

We will be under cover and have coolers of water and snacks on hand. There will be a few simple stage directions – where to stand, look, and how to wear the jewel.

Use the sign up form online to register. Please sign up each participant individually.

Invite your friends and family! Children welcome! But sorry, no pets.

Fashion tip – smart casual, logo-free with a darker shade single-color on the top-half.

Questions? Email blog@melissacameron.net or text 206 512 4533

melissacameron.net/blog