Northern Region Players at the Australian Junior Championships

Play Squash for fun and fitness!

Well the Australian Junior Championships have commenced in Geelong.

Alec MacDonald is writing a blog about "52 on Tour" and Jules Condon is sending in a few photos of the Cairns crew.

There were no changes to the RedStar Awards following the AJC. Unfortunately, no NR players finished in the Top 2.

Hayley Hankinson, BJ MacDonald and Courtney Mather were our best three players at the AJC finishing 3rd in their respective events.

The first year of the new system has worked well but we may enhance it just a little. Starting with the Ingham Tournament we will now recognise those players who finish 3rd.

Therefore, at Ingham players will receive 3 points for winning, 2 points for coming 2nd and 1 point for finishing 3rd. Players finishing 2nd or 3rd will initially be recognised in the Encouragement Award category.

PRESIDENT'S COURT

By Dean Morzone

As I write, our talented athletes are competing in the AJC. We are so proud of each of you and continue to wish you well.

Ingham Tournament - 14/15 October 2017

Our next qualifier tournament in Ingham will be a very valuable pilot for a multi-tiered format and getting players 'doubles ready'. Please do your best to promote the event and get those entries rolling in. The tournament nominations have been affected by players' commitments to AJC, Brisbane Open and PSA. Nominations have been extended to 6 October 2017.

Farewell Rachel McDermott

On behalf of the committee, players and parents, we farewell Rachel McDermott from her valuable role of Tournament Director. Rachel's tireless work is evidenced in the resounding success of all her tournaments.

We are grateful to Rhys Mountford-Jones who will provide his stewardship to the committee for our tournaments, pending installment of a new Tournament Director. Rhys brings his experiences as a former representative player, current player, member of Q Squash board and assistant tournament director for State events.

Tournament Prizes & Sponsorship

From 1 January 2018, Northern Region will introduce standard prizes for the winner, runner-up and plate/third finalists in the aged, doubles and novice/graded events.

Finalists will be rewarded in money, trophies or other prizes depending upon seniority and nature of the event. Clubs will be expected to fund these prizes by reserves, sponsorship, canteen etc. Please support your local club to get necessary fundraising, grants, sponsorship and voluntary assistance.

Queensland Junior Rankings

I have received passionate concerns about timeliness and processes of Q Squash determining State rankings. I'm confident that the board are actively discussing a practical step-by-step process to assure timely ranking decisions. It is critical that cool and calm heads work through their respective representatives to faithfully apply the ranking policies. At least, our regional rankings are up to date, thanks to Janelle and Alec.

Of course, while rankings are very important, it is only one part of the important role of Q Squash. The reality is our peak state body has enormous funding and promotional challenges to increase and maintain participation.

For our part, we are focussed on building junior (and senior) squash and increase participation in our region, and we are doing marvellous things but need your help to promote our great sport.

See you on the court.

Written by Alec MacDonald

The 52 Team:

Karen Dyer, Annette Hankinson, Alec MacDonald (responsible adults and Tour Managers) and the players: BJ MacDonald, Wesley Dyer and Hayley Hankinson.

Thursday September 28th - Day One - Travel to Geelong

Started at 4:30am finishing the last job that had to be finished before leaving Mackay 5:30am arrived at Airport and checked in.

Waited at the airport and were delayed about 15mins and left Mackay about 7:15am and arrived about 5min ahead of schedule in Brisbane prepared for a race to the gate for connecting flight. Arrived at the gate with about 5 minutes to spare before boarding only to find out this flight was delayed about an hour.

Arrived in Geelong about 12:45pm and got our luggage - nothing lost, about time something ran according to the script. Got the Hyundai I30 (known lovingly as the Bus) and prepared to leave Melbourne for Geelong but got hijacked by the infamous Imelda Marcos Twins (alias BJ and Wesley) to go to the airport Westfield shopping centre. Sad but true that a shopping excursion was demanded not by the women in the party but by the 2 boys in the party!

52 on Tour AJC BLOG

After approximately 2hrs we continued the journey to Geelong and arrived at our lodging on the banks of the Barwon River only to find that we were surrounded by Spies/Confederates in the form of the WA Team.

We went for hit at the courts at the Corio Community Sporting Precinct and did the grocery shopping. End of day one no fights, no crashes and as far as we yet know no traffic infringement notices – all in all a good first day of our adventure.

Friday September 29th - Day 2 - Public Holiday for Grand Final Day Parade.

Wes wanted to go to Melbourne – not for the parade but to go to Sneaker Bros (yes, a shoe shop). Temperature was only 5 degrees – why do people even want to live here was the question we all asked.

After sitting in front of the heating air conditioner and having breakfast a shopping expedition was planned to the Geelong Wesfield shopping centre. We arranged to meet at the entrance between 12 and 12:30 and I must admit I was the last to show up – I was not shopping – I was having a massage to straighten out my back and legs after the flight the day before. We had lunch at the Grill Burger Bar at Wes and BJ's insistence and then joined the Queensland team for hit at the courts at 5:00pm.

Saturday September 30th - Day 3 Grand Final Day and the first day of the Championships. The kids believe they are blessed as BJ has his first game at 1:00pm followed by Wes at 2:00pm and Hayley did not have a game so allowed to sleep in.

Arrived at the courts and BJ warmed up by playing Basketball and was hauled on to court by Connor MacDonald as the prior match finished well ahead of time. His unusual warm up technique did not seem to affect his play winning quite easily in 3 against Nathaniel Chang.

Wes came out firing and flew to a 2 -0 lead and then got a bit soft and fluffy in the 3rd and had to fight a bit harder to win the final game. He so demoralised his opponent that the opponent gave himself a stiff uppercut that landed with a very audible smack to his jaw. I think the South Australians need to work on their right crosses as there were no teeth broken or jaws shattered. A few more bicep curls and bench presses are in order.

Luke Eyles (seeded 11th) made a mockery of the Squash Australia Rankings by beating the #2 seed in 4. BJ & Wes had predicted this "Upset" and should probably be given jobs by Squash Australia as seeders for the next Tournament. A player from India who is an Australian resident ranked 25 also made it into the quarter finals!

52 on Tour AJC BLOG

Late in the afternoon an Omen was seen that appears to go well for the Queensland Sharks in the upcoming Teams event – The winning of the AFL Grand Final by the Richmond Tiger Sharks! The WA camp is very worried!

Sunday October 1 - Day 2 of the Championships

First day where the kids had to be out of bed early. Wes's first game was on at 10:30am, but the courts were playing a lot of five setters and were nearly an hour behind. Wes started with a flurry of nicks and raced away with the first game. He then got a bit too enthusiastic without moving his feet and the nicks quickly turned into tin shots and Haanie Qureshi got the second game. Wes then settled down a bit and finished the next 2 games with some amazing squash which included at least 12 nicks.

BJ finally got his game under way at 1:00pm (scheduled to be 11:30am) and tore into his opponent like a Grizzly Bear just awakening from hibernation with a ravenous appetite. He played superb squash doing all the little things right – dying length, volleying, dropping the ball short and glued to the wall and there did not seem to be shot his opponent could do that BJ could not read and cover with ease. In the end an easy 3 set win.

Hayley finally got on for her first match of the championship at about 2:30pm and was so nervous she was shaking in the warm up. Once the game started however the nerves did not show and she took command of the T and hit the ball with serious intent and purpose, covering her opponent's shots with time to spare and hitting winners almost at will. Again another easy 3 game win.

Wes then came out for the quarter final match against Abel Jin from WA. The little maestro came out all guns blazing and was hitting nicks and solid drives right from the gecko, but Abel had not read the same script and hung in for dear life until the tsunami of shots coming from Wes's racquet slowed and he could then hit some shots of his own. In the end it was a very close first game that eventually went to the West

Australian.

Abel then came out firing in the second and blasted Wes off the court. The third set became an Arm Wrestle of World Championship Wrestling proportions, with each player trading blow for blow until the pressure mounted by Abel and the score board finally told on Wes and he went down in 3 tough games.

So day 3 sees BJ renewing his rivalry with Gregory Chan in the semi-finals, Hayley playing the quarter finals at 9:00am (another early start) and Wes renewing his rivalry with West Australian Remi Young, who lost a tough 5 setter against ACT's Sam Sergo. Hayley will be playing fellow Queenslander Katie Davies in the semi-finals to round off the day. Hopefully, they will all fare better than the courageous North Queensland Cowboys.

Monday October 2 - Day 3 of the Championships – Semi finals

Greg Chan versus BJ MacDonald – always a match worthy of the admission. BJ opened up with a series of deft volleys and seemed to know what Greg was doing almost before he did! That first game was akin to the martial arts battle of the masters. BJ having played almost perfect squash won the first game 11 – 6.

Greg went into a huddle with his coach and changed his game plan – BJ said afterwards he was being sneaky and hiding the ball from view when going to the front so BJ was now having trouble reading what Greg was doing. Greg won that game 11-5. The third was an arm wrestle with each player trying to deceive the other – sometimes they even deceived themselves. In the end Greg held his composure to win a tight game 11-8.

By this time a crowd had gathered to watch the clash of titans on court and were getting quite raucous urging the combatants to greater feats of daring and racquet ability.

In the end Greg proved to be the master of the court with BJ running himself to a standstill just to keep in the rallies. No boring 20 shots up the wall in this game, nicks and winners being hit by both players and miraculous gets. A great match in the end which would have been worthy of a Final.

Halley went head to head with Katie Davies. This looked like an arm wrestle in the making with the first game being won by Katie 13 -11 with both players having their chances at game point.

The second brought new resolve and aggression to Hayley who came out with an absolute barrage of winners ranging from Volley nicks to full blooded drives that died in the back of court and the deftest of drop shots up in the front of the court. The stage was set - a 5 setter looked on the cards as Hayley even things up 1 game a piece.

The two Queenslanders did not disappoint the gathering crowd with the 3rd game seeing the two players standing toe for toe trading blow after blow like a pair of prize fighters. Katie proved too strong winning that game 11-9 off an unforced error from Hayley (unforced if you call making an error after you have run the 10000 metre final just before hand).

It was going to take a mammoth fight back by Hayley to make it go to a 5th game. Hayley came out firing and looked on track to force the 5th game but the effort in the previous game proved too much in the end and Katie won the fourth and match 11-8. Another great battle by the 2 good friends.

Wesley found himself in the playoff for 5 to 8 positions coming up against a familiar foe in Remi Young. It was going to be interesting to see if either player could even move after their torrid clashes the day before. The first game started off with an unusually staid opening by both players going into a long rally of length balls deep down the backhand wall.

The two players were gauging just how each other was feeling and moving and like the Great Chess Champion Karpov, Wes won the opening gambit with a daring and decisive crosscourt nick. Game on. This game then turned one way with Remi seemingly getting on top for a few points, with Wes the greedy little urchin stealing it back with another nick or volley. Wes ran out winner 11 – 8.

The second game saw Remi having trouble with his movement – the prior day's battle seemingly taking its toll, and Wesley won it easily. After going into a huddle with his coach Remi seemed to have gotten his hands on a miracle cure for the soreness in his legs running everything down and smashing winners at will.

Wesley only knows one way and that is all out attack in these situations and started his attempt at mounting the barricades with a barrage of winners, but it seemed that his efforts of the day before were starting to tell with a lot of the winners going down.

Wes decided that he did not want a 5 setter and set about systematically dismantling Remi's game and came back with shot after shot finding its mark in devastating fashion. Wes claimed victory with a fist pump 11-4!

Tuesday October 3 - Day 4 of the Championships - Finals Day

52 on Tour AJC BLOG

It was a somewhat sombre mood in the camp in the morning with all our players out of contention, but with a reminder that Hayley and BJ were playing for 3rd places and Wes facing off against his old friend and rival Josh Penfold the banter was soon flying around almost like normal.

Hayley was up first against Ella Burge. These two had recently played at the Queensland Schools State Championship with the result being 1 win each in torrid 5 set matches. Ella had won the final and Hayley was out for revenge.

Ella came out in the first 2 games and literally blew Hayley off the court. It looked like revenge might have to wait for another day, especially when after an arm wrestle Ella got to a 10 -7 lead. Everyone in the crowd thought it was all over. Everyone that was except the girly with a steely expression and fire in her eyes.

Hayley decided she had not had enough squash for the day and stormed home to win the 3rd game 14-12 and the crowd was now hooked on the intrigue and all sensed a fuse had just been lit to a match that was going to explode into one of the major matches of the tournament.

Hayley seemed to be obsessed, absolutely flying around the court and not only getting winners back but hitting them back with interest. Ella matched her blow for blow for much of the 4th game but nothing was going to withstand the onslaught of North Queensland Cyclone known as Hayley Hankinson for too long. Hayley continued the merciless barrage in the 5th game to walk away the winner 11-4.

BJ took to the court next against West Australian Eric Gray next and seemed flat and half asleep. He had been complaining about being sore - thanks Greg we really needed that. BJ looked like he wanted to just lie down and go to sleep and Eric took full and I thought quite unfair advantage of the loose shots and low energy that BJ brought to the court and won the first game 11-8.

Would the bear awake from slumber in time to make a match of it? I set about prodding the Bear, making sure not to get within arms reach of him. He seemed to start firing up and took to the court for the second game and from the first point it seemed like the Bear had gone and had been replaced by BJ the merciless as he set about seeing how much Eric liked to cover the court by sending him to all four corners of the court, and cutting balls off with a variety of length and short volleys and even a drop shot that everyone watching thought was going short to the backhand front corner except BJ deliberately hit it with the wrong side of the racquet to send it to the forehand nick for a roller! Taxi anyone was the call from Wesley, who claimed to have taught BJ that shot. The result was never in doubt after that with BJ winning in 4.

Wes's Punishment

Wesley took the court against Josh who has been a nemesis for Wes in the last few national tournaments. The two great mates tore into each other like the terriers that they are and an entertaining match was played in a relaxed atmosphere with both players joking with each other and the referees. In the end Josh won in 4 and Wesley ended the tournament in 6th place.

So with two 3rd place finishes and a 6th place it wasn't a bad result for the 52 on Tour Team. The next day was the main event being the free day – what were we going to do? It was decided to go into Melbourne for would you believe a shopping expedition. I have never been to so many shops in one day in my entire life.

In the end I had to join in and bought 2 knee guards and some pain killers as my knees just could not last. BJ and Wes were disappointed with a shop called Sneaker Boys, and believe it or not Wes did not buy a pair of shoes on the entire Tour – a remarkable feat!

Karen and Annette made up for it though over the next few days dragging me the entire length of Pakington Street in Geelong. A good time was had by all even me the reluctant shopper, and I think the Victorian Government should thank us for rescuing the state economy from its recession.

We then visited the infamous Geelong Jail or what we refer to as the future finishing School for BJ and Wes! This hell on earth was closed in 1991 and even as late as that did not plumbing for toilets in the cell! It housed Chopper Read for 9 months. Chopper said it was the worst place he had lived in his life and hated it with a passion. The Warden however liked Chopper as he kept the rest of the inmates in line. So when you think the going is too tough and you want to quit just think of Chopper and just HARDEN THE HELL UP!

16 Players from NR ventured down to the Australian Junior Championships held in Geelong. Hayley Hankinson, BJ MacDonald and Courtney Mather were our stars finishing 3rd in their respective events.

Hayley Hankinson lost in the semi final to #1 seed Katie Davies (Queensland) in four 7-11, 11-0, 10-12, 6-11 (25m) but finished off the event well fighting back from 0-2 down to beat Ella Burge (Queensland) in five 4-11, 7-11, 13-11, 11-9, 11-5 (32m).

BJ MacDonald ran into his main rival Greg Chan (WA) in the semi final. Despite getting off to a good start MacDonald went down in four 11-6, 5-11, 3-11, 6-11 (30m). He then played Eric Gray (WA) in the 3 v 4 playoff and recorded a strong 7-11, 11-6, 11-7, 11-5 (28m) result.

Courtney Mather lost to Shehana Vithana (NSW) in four in her semi 8-11, 11-8, 7-11, 13-11, 7-11 (40m). She bounced back and had a very strong win against Grace Pattison from Tasmania 7-11, 11-9, 11-9, 7-11, 11-5 to take 3rd place.

There will be a more comprehensive analysis in next month's edition.

2017 REDSTAR AWARDS

In an effort to recognise more NR juniors we have introduced a new system of performance recognition. From now on every finalist will be recognised. Each winner will be listed in the Achievement category and every finalist (runner up) will be listed in the Encouragement category.

Once a player has won an event they will be elevated and listed in the Achievement category even if they finish runner up in other events. If players are equal they will be listed in alphabetical order.

Players receive 2 points for winning a qualifier, 4 points for winning a Queensland State title and 6 points for winning a National title (AJO & AJC). Players will receive 1 point for finishing runner up in a qualifier, 2 points for runner up in a State final and 3 points for runner up in a National final.

Even though the Ingham qualifier was played in October 2016 it is still a 2017 qualifier so the results from that event will contribute to the 2017 NR Player of the Year Award. A 2018 qualifier played in 2017 will not be included.

The player who accumulates the most points will be declared the Player of the Year. There will be joint winners if 2 players finish on the same number of points. The aim of the points system is to automate the selection and player results determine the outcome. The system is also designed to encourage players to support all events in their quest to accumulate points.

To be awarded points there must be at least two players competing in an age group.

If an event is combined eg U17 and U19 Combined then it will be analysed to ensure points are allocated to both U17 and U19. A direct match up of the best two players in an age group will determine the winner of that age group. Otherwise the highest finishing position in an age group will receive the maximum points.

A player can only enter up to 2 events so they can only be rewarded with 2 results. An U9 player who might win a combined event eg U9, U11 and U13 Combined can only be rewarded for the U13 victory and their own age group U9. If they were the only player in U9 they will earn points for both U13 and U11.
