

MSO

BEETHOVEN BITES

with Richard Vaudrey

PRIMARY LEARNING RESOURCE: BITE 6 (OF 6) LET'S CONQUER ADVERSITY!

Did Beethoven teach us everything we need to know about music in one symphony? Join presenter Richard Vaudrey and the Melbourne Symphony Orchestra for a journey of musical discovery. Get to know genius Ludwig van Beethoven by exploring his Seventh Symphony.

Each Beethoven Bite provides primary-age students with an introduction to the orchestra and its music. Discover the instruments of the orchestra, cover the fundamentals of musical language and submerge young listeners in the exciting sound-world of one of history's greatest composers.

Bites class planning suggestion

1. Watch bite: 10 mins
2. Suggested exercise: 15 mins
3. Class discussion: 15 mins
4. Conclude by listening to suggested movement: 5–10 mins

BITE 6: LET'S CONQUER ADVERSITY!

Contents: Bite 6	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Beethoven was deaf.• How did he overcome this challenge?• What does his music teach us about overcoming adversity?
Educational theme	Overcoming adversity
Suggested educational exercise	Students create a class slideshow of people overcoming adversity. Submit slideshow/movie to MSO by emailing learning@mso.com.au .
Suggested movements	Beethoven Symphony No.7: Movement 4 (8'10" to the end)
Other works	Beethoven Symphony No.5: Movement 4 Spotify Link