Gifts in Wills

Leaving a Legacy to NewHope

You can leave a lasting legacy to NewHope

Including NewHope in your will means you can leave a lasting legacy to help people make and multiply life giving relationships. Your gift can allow NewHope to make long-term plans to invest in our community.

Your gift, no matter how big or small, can help us love God, love others and serve the world.

How can I have a conversation?

If you would like to explore what it means to make a gift in your will to NewHope, please e-mail legacy@newhope.net.au and NewHope will connect you with either a member of Church Council or a member of the NewHope Leadership Team to answer your questions.

Types Of Gifts In Wills

There are several main ways to give a Gift in your Will to NewHope.

- 1. You could leave a percentage of your assets.
- 2. A lump sum, or specific items (such as shares, art, or real estate)
- 3. Or a percentage of the residue* of your estate.

After family and loved ones have first been considered and all debts and taxes have been paid.*

Other types of Gifts in Wills include:

- A Life Interest Gift: Establishing a trust in your Will which allows a spouse or other person (ie a best friend or disabled child) to use your real estate property and to receive any or all the income derived from it during their lifetime. When they die, the title can then be passed on to NewHope.
- A Contingency Gift: Establishing a trust in your Will where NewHope will receive a portion of your estate or other property if your named beneficiary does not survive you.
